

TANEY COUNTY REPUBLICAN

FRANK F. BAILY & CO.,

Entered at the postoffice at Forsyth, Mo., as second class mail.

AU REVOIR

Some twenty months ago I said "howdy" to the readers of The Republican. At that time I had just purchased the property and assumed the management. Since then I have endeavored to give you people a good paper; how well I have succeeded you folks can judge.

Whatever your opinion may be, it has not been as good a paper as I would have liked it to have been. The trouble has been that I have not been able to secure competent mechanical help and consequently have had to be editor, business manager, job printer, typesetter, pressman, mail clerk and all the other little superfluities around a country newspaper office, with the result that the editorial and business end have been sadly neglected.

I have not been running this paper, the paper has been running me. Many weeks the question has not been how good a paper I was going to get out, but whether I would get out any paper at all. I have worked until my nerves are rather shaky. Under such circumstances I felt a change would be better for both myself and the readers of the paper.

For these reasons I have leased the paper to Messrs. Baily and Fallon for one year giving them an option to buy at any time they desire. If they do not see fit to buy I will be back after a year. So I can hardly say "good-bye," but will content myself with "au revoir."

Messrs. Baily and Fallon are both experienced newspaper men and I feel certain will be able to give you a much better paper than I have. In this connection I want to ask for their continued support of the paper. I believe that the paper would be of more value to each one of you if it had a greater circulation in the county. There are two matters of vital importance in the county that will be discussed through its columns during the coming months, the cattle quarantine and state aid to district schools. In these two matters alone the paper can be worth tens of thousands of dollars to the county, and the more subscribers it has the more it will be worth. So you will be helping yourself by getting it into the hands of your neighbors. Do a little work among your neighbors who are not taking the paper and see if you can't get them to try it.

Whether this is to be only a layoff for twelve months or whether it is to be the end of my connection with the paper I want to thank you for the support and patronage I have received. You people of Taney county have treated me as well as I ever expect or want to be treated and if I had two heads and two pairs of legs and arms I'd stay on the job.

Very truly yours,
JOE G. UPTON.

In assuming the management of the Republican, we ask the support of the people of Taney county only on the ground that we merit it, by furnishing a clean, newsy, paper promoting the best interests of and working incessantly for the betterment of Taney's entire population. We will give our patrons our best efforts, backed by years of experience in the newspaper and printing business. We would like to personally meet all the people of Taney county, and will take pleasure in having you make the Republican office your headquarters while at the county seat.

Jim Reece has been vindicated at last.

Henry Blunk will make a good representative despite the slurs of the Stonetaney sheet. And, by the way, Henry didn't run much like a sick man.

Geo. B. Wilson comes to the office of prosecuting attorney a stranger to some of our people, but we make the prediction that the better they become acquainted with him the better they will like him.

Jeems Clyde (Doc) Davis and Grant Johnson were the boss runners. The northwest corner of the court house will be in good hands for the next four years.

John Riley Combs and John L. Morrow didn't get to show their mettle, having no opponents. Nevertheless we believe it would have been all the same to the two Johns.
